

Process management delivers desired outcomes along a path mutually agreed with the Client, driven by the project priorities.

We assist our Clients to develop these priorities along with an understanding of the time-lines the Engineer needs for each task.

We must establish the time-frame for overall delivery of design and prioritise the work to inform procurement, so that sampling and testing can be realised simultaneously.